

Presented by An Taibhdhearc
and the Galway West End Community

WALTER MACKEN

CENTENARY CELEBRATION

30TH APRIL - 15TH MAY

 An Taibhdhearc
Amharclann Náisiúnta na Gaeilge
National Irish Language Theatre

 GALWAY'S WEST END

Sé Bháitéal Ó Maicín duine de na scríbhneoirí is cáiliúla a bhí i nGaillimh riamh. Bhí an-tóir ar a chuid úrscéalta le linn a shaoil - 'Rain on the Wind' agus na leabhair, 'The Scorching Wind', 'Seek the Fair Land' agus 'The Silent People'. Dhíol sé na milliúin cóipeanna dá shaothar ar fud an domhain.

D'oibrigh sé as Taibhdhearc mar Stiúrthóir Ealaíona ar feadh tréimhse idir 1939-1947. Scríobh agus d'aistrigh sé a lán drámaí agus stíúr sé iad freisin. Bhí an-tóir air mar aisteoir agus ghlac sé ról in Amharclann na Mainistreach agus ar Broadway Mheiriceá. Is i Mionlach a raibh cónaí air agus thug sé faoin scríbhneoireacht ansin. Rinneadh scannán a bhí bunaithe ar an úrscéal a scríobh sé do pháistí, 'Flight of the Doves'.

WALTER MACKEN is one of Galway's most famous writers, whose novels achieved great popularity in his lifetime, including 'Rain on the Wind' in 1950 and the trilogy, 'Seek the Fair Land', 'The Scorching Wind' and 'The Silent People'. His books sold several million copies in his lifetime.

He was also Artistic Director of An Taibhdhearc theatre in the 1940's, (1939-1947), during which he spent time directing, designing and painting sets as well as producing plays which he both wrote and translated into Irish – in all, a total of 77 plays. He was also an actor and after An Taibhdhearc, trod the boards on the Abbey and on Broadway, before coming home to Menlo to write. Some of his novels were made into films, such as 'Flight of the Doves', and 'Home is the Hero'.

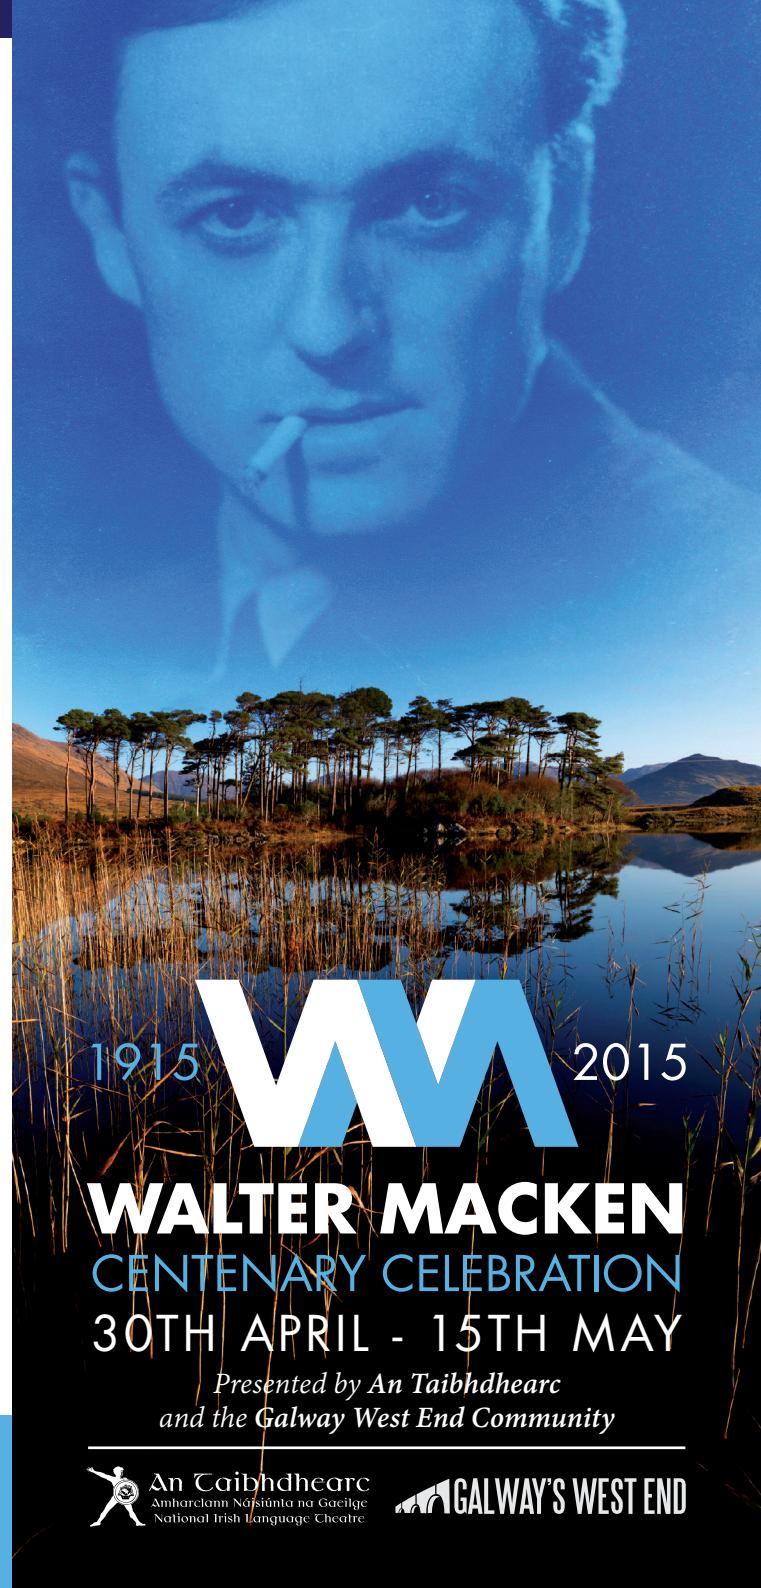

Buiochas le Comhairle Cathrach na Gaillimhe
With the kind support of Galway City Council

An Taibhdhearc, 19 Middle Street, Galway City
Tel: +353 91 562 024 Email: eolas@antaibhdhearc.com

www.antaibhdhearc.com

 An Roinn
Ealaion, Oidhreachta agus Gaeltachta Department of Arts, Heritage and the Gaeltacht

www.pdesignassociates.ie

1915 WM 2015

WALTER MACKEN

CENTENARY CELEBRATION

30TH APRIL - 15TH MAY

Presented by An Taibhdhearc
and the Galway West End Community

 An Taibhdhearc
Amharclann Náisiúnta na Gaeilge
National Irish Language Theatre

 GALWAY'S WEST END

3.00pm WELCOME from Master of Ceremonies, James O'Toole
ULTAN MACKEN, son of Walter, remembers his father
'WALTER' – an actor reads from books about Galway life
MUSIC – played by musicians from the Jes National School
RE- ENACTMENT – of the Black and Tans invasion
LAMENT – sean-nós singer, Bríd Ní Mhaolíoin of Flirt FM
'WALTER' – reads more from the novels
MUSIC and SET DANCING – musicians from the Crane Bar
DRAMAS – Aisteoirí na Taibhdheirce perform excerpts from Walter Macken's plays in Irish and in English
FATHER WALTER MACKEN – eldest son of Walter talks about his father's work

5.00pm FANCY DRESS PARADE and PRIZES

Exhibition of Walter Macken's books and memorabilia in Bell, Book and Candle bookshop at Small Crane, off Sea Road. Open Sunday 3rd May.

Photographs of Walter Macken and his family are from the collections of Tom Kenny, Ultan Macken and Paul Deacy.

EVENTS IN THE WEST END

SUNDAY 3RD MAY, 3-5PM

Come along to St Joseph's Avenue and join in the fun to celebrate the life of Galway's famous writer, WALTER MACKEN on the 100th anniversary of his birth.

Presented by the Galway West End Community in association with An Taibhdhearc theatre.

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

MUSIC – Old Irish Airs of the period played on piano
CHILDREN'S GAMES of hopscotch, skipping, rounders and football, as described in the stories written by Walter

DR JAMES E. REID

FANCY DRESS PARADE and PRIZES

Exhibition of Walter Macken's books and memorabilia in Bell, Book and Candle bookshop at Small Crane, off Sea Road. Open Sunday 3rd May.

EVENTS AT AN TAIBHDHEARC

REMEMBERING WALTER MACKEN

THURSDAY 30TH APRIL AT 6PM. ADMISSION FREE

An illustrated talk about Walter Macken, novelist, playwright and actor, in the company of Tom Kenny in association with Galway City Museum.

ULTAN MACKEN/RTÉ DOCUMENTARY

TUESDAY 12TH MAY AT 8PM. ADMISSION €5

Walter Macken, a life as told by his son, with a showing of RTÉ documentary made in 1988 on the life of Galway man Walter Macken.

FLIGHT OF THE DOVES

WEDNESDAY 13TH MAY AT 10.30AM. ADM €5

A showing of the film, 'Flight of the Doves' based on Walter Macken's most famous novel for children. Special school rates available.

Followed by a talk from his son, Ultan at 1pm.

DR IAN WALSH

THURSDAY 14TH MAY AT 8PM. ADMISSION €5

Lecturer in Drama, Theatre and Performance School of Humanities, NUI Galway, speaks about the dramas of Walter Macken.

DR JAMES E. REID

FRIDAY 15TH MAY AT 1PM. ADMISSION €5

Dr James E. Reid has written several books on Walter Macken. He will focus on Walter's career in theatre as an actor. This talk will be punctuated by readings from Walter Macken's plays in Irish and in English.

STREET TO STAGE

FRIDAY 15TH MAY AT 8PM. ADMISSION FREE

FROM ST JOSEPH'S TO AN TAIBHDHEARC

The street party held on May 3rd to celebrate Walter Macken's life comes in from St Joseph's Avenue with readings, recreations and music. A film of the event will be shown on the night! Join us to give Walter a great night in the company of the residents of Galway's West End.